

10th Webcast Polling Report

#COVID19business

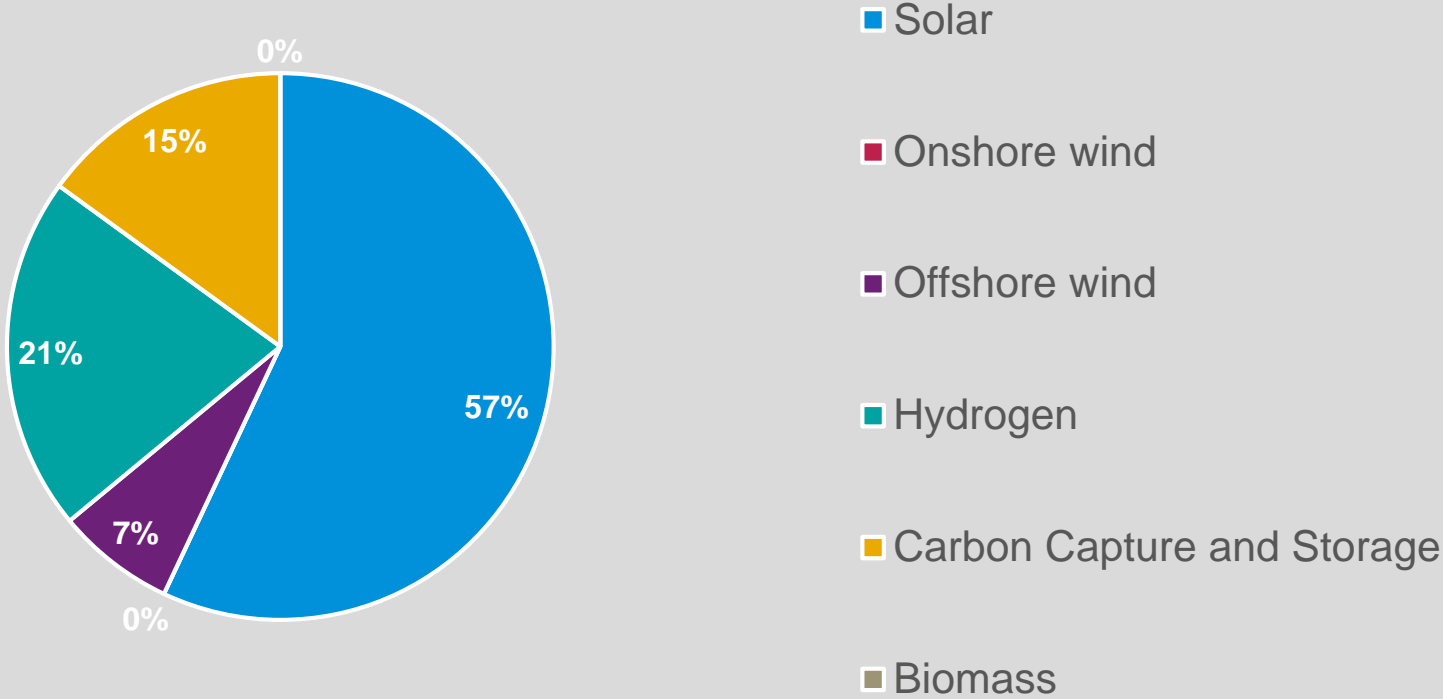

Do you think that COVID-19 could serve to strengthen the momentum towards a zero carbon world?

- Not at all
- No connection between the two issues
- Will have some impact but not significant
- Will result in much greater focus on the climate agenda in the future

Which alternative source of energy do you believe has the most long-term promise to scale and meet demand to offset crude consumption?

When do you think is the earliest year when more than 50% of all companies will have achieved the goal of net zero carbon reduction?
